

CALL FOR PAPERS!

The Ecumenical Committee and Consortium Student Board invite submissions to the

Eighth annual Ecumenical Essay Contest

Topics for the essay should emphasize one of the following:

- Theory: An academic exploration of the History, Theology, or Dialogues of the Ecumenical Movement, be they multi-ecclesial/denominational or bilateral between two churches or traditions.
- Practice: An aspect of Practical Ecumenism or Spiritual Ecumenism, including local to national efforts or international efforts to expand ecumenical dialogue, shared spiritual practice, and/or education.

Essay should be between 12 and 18 pages (double spaced), and should be a graduate level paper.

Submissions will be accepted electronically until April 30, 2015

Submit to: lgolemon@washtheocon.org

Winners will receive a monetary reward, public recognition and publication, either online or in the Eastern Churches Journal

For more information and paper guidelines please visit: <https://washtheocon.org>