

TADABBUR AL-QUR'AN CONTEMPLATING THE QUR'AN

HOWARD UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF DIVINITY
1400 SHEPHERD STREET, NE WASHINGTON, DC 20017

MARCH 25-26, 2013

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DR. SULAYMAN NYANG

The conference organizers invite you to a unique conference on the Qur'an that combines intellectual rigor with community engagement. The conference will highlight several areas of contemporary Qur'anic scholarship, including the study of different hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'an; intertextual and thematic readings of the Qur'anic text; and textual analyses that explore the relationship between structure and meaning in the Qur'an. One of the key aims of the conference is to foster discussion between academics, community leaders, and students regarding the Qur'an and its various interpretations. The conference will focus on the following topics:

- o The Qur'an in dialogue with Jews and Christians
- o The Qur'an between faith and critical thinking
- o Qur'anic ethics
- o Gender in the Qur'an
- o Intertextual readings of the Qur'an
- o Thematic and stylistic analysis

RSVP BY MARCH 18TH: CONTEMPLATINGTHEQURAN@GMAIL.COM

Questions?

Zainab Alwani
Howard University
zainab.alwani@howard.edu

Maria Dakake
George Mason University
mdakakem@gmu.edu

Younus Y. Mirza
Millsaps College
ymirza3131@aol.com