

April 1, 2016

The Center for Anglican Communion Studies
Virginia Theological Seminary
3737 Seminary Rd., Alexandria, VA

invites international students in the Consortium to an afternoon
and evening with

Dr. Jehu Hanciles

Migration and Mission

Noon Eucharist

1pm Lunch Discussion

2-5pm Campus tour and discussion
with VTS international students

5pm Community Eucharist followed by Community Dinner

We are delighted to invite international students studying at Consortium schools to join us for an afternoon and evening with Dr. Jehu H. Hanciles. Dr. Hanciles is Associate Professor of World Christianity at Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Hanciles' current research surveys the history of global Christian expansion through the lens of migration. He has written and published on issues related to the history of Christianity (notably the African experience) and globalization, including two books, Euthanasia of a Mission: African Church Autonomy in a Colonial Context (Praeger, 2002) and Beyond Christendom: Globalization, African Migration and the Transformation of the West (Orbis Books, 2009), and countless articles. His article "The Future of Missiology as a Discipline" was one of the top ten most read articles in Missiology in 2015. He serves as associate editor of Missiology, one of the premier scholarly journals of mission studies, and on the editorial advisory committee for Baylor University Press's Studies in World Christianity.

RSVP to wtc@washtheocon.org

If you need a ride, please note that in the RSVP. Please RSVP by March 28 if you need a ride, by March 30 if not.. You can also METRO on the Yellow Line to King Street Station, then take Dash 2 Bus 10 minutes to the Seminary.

To RSVP or get assistance you may also call our office: 202-832-2675.