

Emerging Trends in Ecumenism: Signs of Hope

The Washington Theological Consortium, the Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, USCCB and St. Paul's College invite you to:

a Prayer Service, Dinner, & Program Tuesday, March 19

4:00-8:30 pm at St. Paul's College
3015 4th Street NW, Washington, DC

You are welcome to any or all of the following:

4:00: Registration and Snacks

4:15: Models and Resources for Ecumenical Work

Dr. Mitzi Budde (Lutheran) and Fr. Tom Ryan, CSP (Paulists)

5:15: Eastern Orthodox Prayer Service

Fr. Dimitrios Antokas and Fr. Konstantinos Pavlakos

6:00: Dinner, Conversations, and Networking

6:45 Plenary: "Emerging Trends in Ecumenism"

By Fr. John Crossin, OSFS

(Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, USCCB)

and Rev. Katherine Grieb, PhD

(Professor at Virginia Theological Seminary)

7:45: Conversation Circles on latest developments:

Baptism (Reformed, Catholic and others)

Rev. Scott Ickert (WTC) and Fr. Anthony Cirelli (USCCB)

Toward Full Communion (Catholic, Eastern Orthodox)

Fr. Ron Roberson, CSP (Paulists, USCCB)

Spiritual Ecumenism (all traditions)

Dr. Katherine Brown (WTU, VTS)

Evangelical-Catholic Dialogues

Rev. Quinn Fox (National Presbyterian Church)

8:25: Future Plans and Closing

Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs

100 Years • 1913-2013

There is no charge for the event, but space is limited

RSVP to

wtc@washtheocon.org

or call 202-832-2675

(please note if not attending dinner)