

Emerging Trends in Ecumenism: Signs of Hope

WASHINGTON
THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

The Washington Theological Consortium, the Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, USCCB and St. Paul's College invite you to:

A Prayer Service, Dinner, and Program Tuesday, March 19

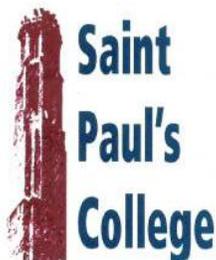

4:00-8:15 pm at St. Paul's College
3015 4th Street NW, Washington, DC

You are welcome for any or all of the following events

- 4:00: Registration and Snacks
- 4:15: Models and Resources for Ecumenical Work
Mitzi Budde (VTS), and Fr. Tom Ryan (Paulists)
- 5:15: Eastern Orthodox Prayer Service
- 6:00: Dinner, Conversations, and Networking
- 6:45 Plenary: "Emerging Trends in Ecumenism"
By Fr. John Crossin, OSFS
(Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, USCCB)
and Rev'd A. Katherine Grieb, Ph.D.
(Virginia Theological Seminary)
- 7:45: Conversation Circles on latest developments:
Baptism (Reformed, Catholic and others)
Toward Full Communion (Catholic, Eastern Orthodox)
Spiritual Ecumenism (all traditions), and Evangelical-Catholic Dialogues
- 8:15: Closing Remarks

Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs

100 Years • 1913-2013

There is no charge for the event, but space is limited
RSVP to wtc@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675
(please note if not attending dinner)