

WASHINGTON
THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

The Council of Deans Of the Washington Theological Consortium
Cordially invites you to the 41st Faculties' Convocation

Saturday, September 21, 2013

9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. with lunch

Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, 61 Seminary Ridge Rd.

Reframing the Civil War: Religion, Race and Culture

Tour of the new Seminary Ridge Museum
on Religion, Culture and the Civil War

Presentation by:

Dr. Scott Hancock, Gettysburg College
Professor of History and Africana Studies

The Problem of the Twenty-First Century is the Problem of Colored People (Dubois)

Responses from:

Dr. Renee Harrison, Howard University School of Divinity

Dr. Leonard Hummel, Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg

WEB Dubois

Seminary Ridge Museum
Gettysburg Seminary

Join colleagues for a guided tour of the world-class museum of religion, culture, and the Civil War in Gettysburg. Explore the educational mission of the museum on an historic seminary campus, its unique mission to address issues of religion, race, and culture related to the War. Hear presentation and responses exploring how African American agency transformed American religious culture in the Civil War era. Enjoy lunch and faculty groups.

Overnight accommodations available. Send inquiries to: wtc@washtheocon.org.
RSVP to your Dean's office.