Costs & Financial Aid

The estimated cost for the study tour to Turkey is $1,600. This amount will cover the cost of all transportation within Istanbul, accommodation, meals, and entrance fees to various cultural/historical sites. The cost does not include the round-trip ticket from Washington to Istanbul and any tuition charged by home institutions. Participants will buy their round tickets by themselves. Students may apply for financial aid at their home institutions.

A generous scholarship is available for the Virginia Theological Seminary's students. For details about the scholarship contact Rev. Robert Heaney at rheaney@vts.edu. Other participants can seek for financial aid through their dioceses or home institutions.

Location & Housing

The participants will stay at the guesthouse of the Foundation, located in the historic central district of Istanbul.

Application Procedure

Step 1: In order to earn credits, students from member institutions from the Washington Theological Consortium should register for the course through their home institutions.

Step 2: All of the participants should fill the registration form (available at <http://www.washtheocon.org/> and email it to Salih Sayilgan at <mss249@georgetown.edu>. In addition, the participants are required to mail a $600 non-refundable deposit to the following address: 113 Healy, Box 57-1250, Washington, DC, 20057.

Application deadline:

Registration for the course at the home institution: January 30, 2014
