

March 19, 2014 (Wed)
5:00-8:45 p.m.

WASHINGTON
THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM
Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs

100 Years • 1913-2013

*A cooperative event of the Washington Theological Consortium, the Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious
Affairs of the USCCB, and St.
Paul's College*

Emerging Trends in Interreligious Dialogue
Resource Workshop, Dinner and Program
Wednesday March 19, 2014

5:00-8:45 pm

St. Paul's College

3015 4th Street NE, Washington, DC

You are welcome to any or all of the following:

4:45: Registration and Snacks

5:00: Workshop: Models and Resources for Interreligious Work

Rabbi Gerry Serotta, Clergy Beyond Borders

Imam Yahya Hendi, Clergy Beyond Borders

Clarke Lebensteine, Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan
Washington

Heather Miller Rubens, Institute for Christian Jewish Studies

6:00: Dinner and Conversations

6:45 Plenary "Developments and Hopes for Interreligious Dialogue"

Dr. John Borelli, Georgetown University

Dr. James Farwell, Virginia Theological Seminary

7:45: Conversation Circles on latest trends:

Tom Ryan, CSP: Interreligious Gift Exchange:

Yoga, meditation, spiritual practices

Christina Warner: Combating Islamophobia & Prejudice
Shoulder to Shoulder Campaign

Drs. Ben Sax & Heather Miller Rubens: Jewish-Christian dialogue, Institute for Christian Jewish Studies

Dr. Anthony Cirelli: Catholic Dialogue with other Faiths
Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs

Drs. Richard Jones: Muslim Christian studies and dialogue,
Washington Theological Consortium

8:45: Closure

*There is no charge for the event, but space is limited
RSVP to wtc@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675
(please note if not attending dinner)*

