

Interfaith Peacebuilding Event

American University, SIS

Sunday, October 30

5:00-8:00 pm

WASHINGTON THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

You are cordially invited to the 16th Annual Tachmindji Event

Alternative Responses to Violent Extremism:

Islamic Approaches to Peacebuilding

Dr. Mohammed Abu-Nimer

Professor, American University School of International Service
Founder and President of the Salam Institute for Peace and Justice

Response by Honored Guest

Mr. Khizr Khan

Speaker at Democratic National Convention
Lawyer, Community leader, and Gold Star father of American military hero, Captain Humayun Khan

Discussion and Reception Follow

Venue: American University School of International Service, Founders' Room 4400 Massachusetts Ave. NW, Washington, DC

(free parking available in SIS garage at
New Mexico and Nebraska Avenue NW)

RSVP to wtc@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675

This event made possible by an endowment from Diane Tachmindji for the promotion of intra- and interfaith dialogue.