

Service for Christian Unity,
Figel Lectures on Ecumenism
February 11, 2016
at the John Leland Center

WASHINGTON
THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM
Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

Thursday, February 11
5:30-8:30 pm

Dr. Joseph Small

Dr. Small brings his years of experience in Ecumenical and denominational leadership to reflect on the current state of divisions—within both specific churches/denominations and the Church universal. He will bring lessons learned from the Reformation for addressing divisions in the Body of Christ. How do these divisions over polity, morals, the order of ministry, and other social and theological issues continue to divide Christians from their call to unity in Christ?

Annual Ecumenism Award
Prayer Service for Christian Unity and 8th Annual Figel Address on Ecumenism

The Body Lies Bleeding: The Reformation and Contemporary Ecclesial Divisions

Dr. Joseph Small

Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology
Former Director, Office of Theology and Worship,
Presbyterian Church (USA)

Venue: John Leland Center for Theological Studies
1306 N. Highland Street, Arlington, VA
(in the sanctuary of the Church at Clarendon)

(The Church is directly across from Clarendon Metro stop on the Orange line, street parking and nearby garage available.)

Prayer Service, Award, Lecture and Full Reception to RSVP contact wtc@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675