

Al-Alwani Event for Muslim-Christian Dialogue

WASHINGTON THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

Thursday, March 30
6:00-9:00 pm

Sachedina Madigan

Two experts in interreligious dialogue and the scholarship of their own religious traditions explore the timely issue of how religions co-exist and thrive in a modern, pluralistic society. Dr. Sachedina and Fr. Madigan will explore resources within Islam and Christianity to address the faithful engagement of religious followers and leaders with other religions in the wider pursuit of contributing to civil society and the common good.

Eighth Annual Taha Al-Alwani Lectures in Muslim-Christian Dialogue

“Religious Faiths in a Pluralistic Society”

Dr. Abdulaziz Sachedina, Professor and IIT Chair in Islamic Studies, George Mason University

Dr. Dan Madigan, SJ, Associate Professor at Georgetown University, and Senior Fellow at the Al-Waleed Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding

Venue: the El-Hibri Foundation, 1420 16th Street NW, DC

A few blocks walk from Dupont Circle Metro station. Parking on nearby Streets or at Colonial Garage, 1616 P St NW.

Full reception follows lectures and discussion.

This event made possible by the ongoing support of the Heritage Trust.

More info: <http://washtheocon.org/events/>

For more information or To RSVP contact wtc@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675

415 Michigan Ave. NE, Suite 105
Washington DC, 20017

Two experts in interreligious dialogue and the scholarship of their own religious traditions explore the timely issue of how religions co-exist and thrive in a modern, pluralistic society. Dr. Sachedina and Fr. Madigan will explore resources within Islam and Christianity to address the faithful engagement of religious followers and leaders with other religions in the wider pursuit of contributing to civil society and the common good.

More info: <http://washtheocon.org/events/>