

Faculties' Convocation

Monday, October 2

6:00-9:00 pm

(Registration begins at 5:30)

Sponsored by the Council of Deans

WASHINGTON
THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

Dr. Peter C. Phan
Georgetown University

Peter Phan emigrated from Vietnam to the U.S. as a refugee in 1975. He earned the Doctor of Sacred Theology from the Universitas Pontificia Salesiana, Rome, and the Doctor of Philosophy and the Doctor of Divinity from the University of London. He holds the Ignacio Ellacuría Chair of Catholic Social Thought at Georgetown University. He has served as President of the Catholic Theological Society of America, and in 2010 he received the CTSA's John Courtney Murray Award.

His publications range from patristic thought to ecclesiology, mission, and culture. Dr. Phan has addressed issues of ecclesial diversity and immigration in Christianities in Migration: The Global Perspective (2016), Contemporary Issues of Migration and Theology (2013) and in many other works. He is general editor of the multi-volume Theology in Global Perspective (Orbis) and Ethnic American Pastoral Spirituality (Paulist). His work appears in eleven languages.

Program includes Lecture, Panelists and Discussion, Faculty Groups, and Full Reception. RSVP now!

45th Annual Faculties' Convocation Washington Theological Consortium

"No Longer Strangers and Foreigners:"
The Intersection of Christian Identity,
Mission, and the Ethics of Immigration

Dr. Peter C. Phan
Ellacuría Chair of Catholic Social Thought
Georgetown University

New York Avenue Presbyterian Church
1313 New York Ave. NW, Washington DC

Metro access: Metro Center stop (Orange, Red and Blue lines).

Parking at Green City Parking 1212 New York Avenue NW.

NYAPC is an active member of the Sanctuary Network of Churches in the D.C. region, dedicated to support immigrants in the region.

Panelists Include:

Dr. John Ahn, Howard

Assistant Professor of Hebrew Bible,
Howard University School of Divinity.
John is a recognized scholar in the exilicforced migrations in Scripture. His works include The Prophets Speak on Forced Migration and Exile as Forced Migration.

Dr. Sam Marullo, Wesley

Professor of Sociology and Director of the Center for the Missional Church, Wesley Downtown. Previously Professor and Chair of Georgetown's Department of Sociology.
His scholarship includes ministry and social research, urban ministry, and social justice.

Kathryn Doan, Esq, CAIR

Executive Director of the Capital Area Immigrants' Rights Coalition (CAIR). A graduate of CUA's Law School, she received the DC Bar Foundations' Jerrold
Scoutt Prize for her expertise in community and immigrant legal services.

RSVP with your Academic Dean or contact wtc@washtheocon.org (202-832-2675)