LIBRARY BORROWING FOR STUDENTS AND FACULTIES

There are eleven lending libraries in the Washington Theological Consortium (WTC) that contain over two million volumes in theology and related disciplines. One university library also partners with us. Students and faculty who hold a current valid ID from a WTC school are eligible for borrowing privileges at these libraries. You must pick up a borrowing form from your home institution, have it signed by the librarian, and take it and your school ID to the lending library. Consult the Consortium website for information on libraries' location, hours, policies, and collections.
