

Yvonne D. McKinney, Finance & Administration Associate...

Yvonne facilitates the financial and administrative work of the Institute. She worked/works with several church organizations directing Christian and missionary education, leadership development, strategic planning, communications, and administrative management. Yvonne authors calls to worship, litanies, as well as other Christian education studies and articles. She is a Church Administrator as well as support to The Washington Theological Consortium. A retired Human Resources and Organizational Development executive, she has an active consulting practice in same. She graduated from North Carolina A&T University and has a graduate degree from The Ohio State University.