

EMERGING RELIGIOUS LEADERS COURSE: Intensive Seminar on Muslim-Christian Dialogue

The future of faith communities depends upon religious leaders who will be able to serve in a religiously diverse world.

Join us for an intensive study program that brings together Christian and Muslim seminarians/chaplains to engage in study and conversation in the DC area.

EDUCATION AS A POWERFUL FORCE FOR GOOD

Muslim-Christian dialogue and mutual understanding is imperative in our world. This intensive seminar, highlighting both commonalities and conflicts, will focus on the particular ways our respective communities read, interpret, and embody our sacred traditions. Over five days, participants will listen to brief lectures, engage in small group study, and take study-trips in Washington, DC.

In this weeklong intensive, we encourage rigorous interreligious learning, spiritual exploration and interreligious friendships. Muslim and Christian students will have ample opportunity to get to know one another, and develop lasting relationships. Course credit is available through all participating institutions. For more information email: lgolemon@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675.

Faculty:

- Tamara Gray, Rabata
- Ian Markham, Virginia Theological Seminary
- Heather Miller Rubens, Institute for Islamic, Christian, and Jewish Studies
- Salahuddin Muhammad, As Salaam Islamic Center
- Matthew D. Taylor, Institute for Islamic, Christian, and Jewish Studies
- Zeyneb Sayilgan, Institute for Islamic, Christian, and Jewish Studies
- Wilhelmus Valkenberg, Catholic University of America
- Larry Golemon, Washington Theological Consortium

DATE

JUNE 1-5, 2022
Wednesday evening through
Sunday afternoon

LOCATION

Virginia Theological Seminary
in Alexandria, Virginia

COST

Travel, accommodation, and meals will be covered for all students. For Credit, pay tuition at your school.

STUDENTS

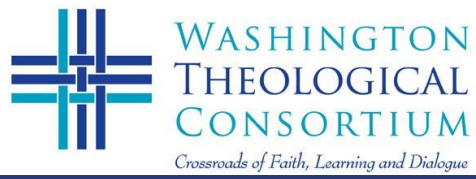

12-15 CHRISTIAN
SEMINARIANS

12-15 MUSLIM
SEMINARIANS AND
CHAPLAINS-IN-TRAINING

APPLICATION DUE DATE

March 15, 2022 (deadline to contact your Dean)

APPLY TODAY: Contact your school dean about joining this program!!

WTC Students: for more info
email

lgolemon@washtheocon.org

WWW.ICJS.ORG

FACEBOOK: @ICJSBaltimore