

Health & Wellness:
Day-Retreat for
Consortium Students
March 7, 2015

WASHINGTON THEOLOGICAL CONSORTIUM

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

Saturday, March 7, 2015
9 am- 4 pm @ VTS

Virginia Theological Seminary
3737 Seminary Rd., Alexandria, VA
(1 mile east of I 395 Seminary Rd exit)

Schedule:

8:30 am Coffee & Tea gathering
9:00 A framework for Wellness
9:30 Complete a self-assessment
10:00 Small group discussion (break)
10:45 Understanding personal Change
11:15 Applying change to my life
(small group discussion)
11:45 Lunch (friends & healthy eating)
12:40 Wellness Activities I (breakouts)
Contemplative Sprituality
Mandalas, Labyrinth and Prayer
Improvisational Humor in Ministry
Health Checks: Blood Pressure, etc
Yoga and Wellness
Gardens and Good Food
Massage and Relaxation.
1:40 Wellness Activities (second session)
2:30 Creating Personal Wellness Plan
3:00 Small Group Reflection/Sharing
3:30 Closing Remarks and Worship

Health, Wellness & Ministry Retreat for Consortium Students

Explore Spirituality and Wellness, a process for healthy changes, making a personal Wellness Plan, and break out sessions to try something new! Great fellowship and reflection with students from other Consortium schools.

Rev's Scott Stoner and Shannon Kelly
Living Compass Foundation, Chicago

*No charge with RSVP: Includes Lunch
Register here: wtc@washtheocon.org or contact your Dean of Students*

Why do seminaries care about health, wellness and ministry?

Health risks for clergy and church workers are on the rise; and research shows that healthy leaders shape healthy congregations. Buck the trend by setting a new course for your and life and ministry. Join us!

Free for those who RSVP:

wtc@washtheocon.org or call 202-832-2675

